PACIFIC

Serious game for leadership and team management

General description:

Pacific is a survival adventure that challenges the student to escape with a team from a desert island where they are stranded following a crash. The chances of escaping with their lives will depend on the student's ability to manage and motivate the team.

Pacific is an online course based on a simulator that recreates real-life leadership situations so that students can practice their leadership skills and manage teams effectively.

Pacific is available in several languages. Check with your Key Account Manager for availability.

Characteristics:

A learning program built around the game-based learning methodology:

- Applicable and practical.
- Revolutionary and powerful.
- Addictive and innovative.
- Experiential learning.
- Flexible, quick and easy to play.
- Fun and entertaining.
- Unique.
Methodology:

The game-based learning methodology developed by Gamelearn is a combination of 3 elements:

1. Quality content, equivalent to a two-day classroom course with a strong practical focus that is useful and has a direct application at work.

2. Gamification techniques such as storytelling, rankings, levels and badges so that learning becomes a different and fun experience in order to generate student engagement.

3. An advanced simulator that recreates leadership situations that are similar to real life so that the student can practice in a safe and stress-free environment while also receiving personalized feedback with areas for improvement.
